Previous Artist Statement: Steadfast Series

2003

(Written for "Steadfast" Series, shown at various exhibits, Dearborn/Detroit, including Padzieski Gallery, Gallery 555, ACCESS Annual Community Dinner adjoining exhibit.)

The world rushes past us, screeching like a duststorm at the heels of a devastating horde. We stand in our spaces, attempting to withstand the gusts of violence and intimidation. We clutch to the memories of ourselves and our origins, protecting them from the wolves and the tormenting currents that coil around us; each of us admonished, enduring the terror of the storm. The air feels historic, but in a dreadful, brutal way. In these blinding times of confusion and reprisal, my creative attempts are glimpses into our secret inner knowings."
